

Winter Toast

One semester and fourteen mandatory service hours to go. Fulfill them by working on Winter Toast. It's Queen of Angels' largest fundraiser, and it takes lots of help from lots of you. As a Catholic, you are called to a lifetime of service. We'd be perfectly happy with just one night of your help. Here's what we need:

Solicitors– It's a fundraiser. Someone has to raise those funds and ask for stuff to auction off. How about you? See how easy it is? We just solicited your help and you probably didn't even notice.

Errand runners – Used a lot the day before and/or of Winter Toast. You'll have your work all done before the fun even begins on the 20th so you can relax and enjoy.

Set up – Moving things, carrying things, hanging things and standing around waiting to be told what to do with things.

Greeters- Friendly or capable of faking it for an hour or so? Greeters check in Winter Toast guests and distribute auction paddles and programs.

Ticket sales – The ubiquitous Catholic school job. Feel the thrill of being referred to during Mass announcements as “the representative selling tickets at the back of church”. Revel in the rush of power that comes from controlling the giant roll of tiny-numbered drink tickets the night of the event.

Check out- Checking out bidders who buy auction items. This position includes on-the-job training.

Cleanup – Cleaning up during or after the event. Perfect for insomniacs or those who don't like heading to the Sunnyside Tap immediately after Winter Toast.

Auction spotters, recorders and runners – This job comes with its own accessories like a specially designed flashlight and/or permanent marker. Help the auctioneer identify and record bidders during the auction. Going once, going twice. Gone. This job is yours.

General help – There is lots to be done between now and February 20th. Offer us some of your valuable time and we'll figure out a way to use it.

To volunteer, please return this sheet to the school office or contact Jennifer Payne pwjpp@sbcglobal.net or 773-279-1140.

Many are called. All are chosen. We need a lot of help.
